"LPI accreditation gives us formal recognition of our management, operation and business processes. It positions us very well against bestpractice key performance indicators, verifies our compliance with recognised standards and demonstrates our commitment to professionalism and excellent customer service. With this accreditation in place, we now have a solid foundation on which to build our value to the business.

Huw Lewis, Senior Manager, Human Resources and L&D, Al Ahli Bank of Kuwait K.S.C.P.

"Our accreditation mentor has been excellent in offering advice and guidance to help us develop our services. The regular updates and access to the LPI website have also proved themselves as invaluable tools. The organisation is extremely proud of our accreditation and continues to support it fully. People are more aware of our services and the work we do as a result of accreditation.

Sharon Tew. NHS Cheshire & Merseyside CSU

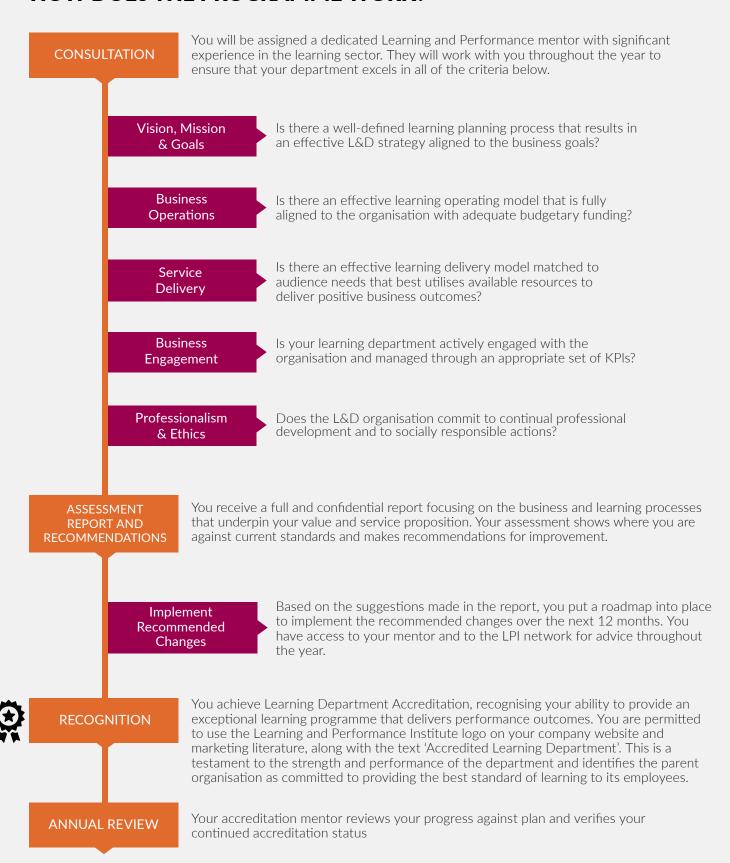

"For me it's being having the same dedicated consultant, who has travelled the journey with us and knows our history. I've found that the consultant's approach has always been very supportive and helpful and any suggestions have been sensible and in line with resources and

HOW DOES THE PROGRAMME WORK?

Since 1995 we have worked with hundreds of organisations and thousands of individuals to raise the profile and improve the standards of workplace learning worldwide. We do this through a range of membership options, certifications, accreditations, events, awards, networks, consultancy and related services. We are a not-for-profit body.
